General Solicitation Disclosures

If you are donating on www.networkforgood.com, www.networkforgood.org, www.nfggive.com or on websites or applications of partners of Network for Good, the following disclosures apply to you. If you are donating directly on a charity website, where Network for Good, a 501(c)(3) organization, is acting as the agent of the charity, then the following terms do not apply to you. Our website and partner websites (“NFG-Enabled Donation Sites”) enable you to search and donate to more than 1 million charities online. Your donation is safe, secure, and private, and helps support the issues and causes you care most about. By donating via NFG-Enabled Donation Sites, you are contributing to a donor-advised fund at Network For Good, Inc., a Delaware nonprofit organization (“NFG-DAF”) that is tax-exempt under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code. You are making a tax deductible contribution to NFG-DAF and recommending that NFG-DAF make a grant of your donation to the charity that you have selected.

NFG-DAF honors all requests from any charity that does not want to receive donations via NFG-Enabled Donation Sites and would like to “opt out” from receiving recommended donations. A charity may send such request to NFG-DAF at support@networkforgood.com.

Who receives the donation?

As required by federal tax law, once a donation has been processed, it becomes the property of NFG-DAF, and NFG-DAF has exclusive legal control over the donated funds. In very rare situations, NFG-DAF cannot grant donated funds to the recommended charity when, for example, such charity falls out of compliance with a federal or state regulatory authority. If NFG-DAF cannot grant the donation to the charity that you have recommended, NFG-DAF may in its sole discretion select an alternate recipient charity or contact you for a different recommendation.

When will the charity get the donation?

If the recommended charity has signed up to receive disbursements through electronic funds transfer, then NFG-DAF will disburse all donations, net of fees, typically within fifteen (15) days and no later than thirty (30) days after the end of each month in which NFG-DAF has received the donation. If the recommended charity has elected to receive disbursements by check, NFG-DAF will mail a check typically within fifteen (15) days and no later than thirty (30) days after the end of each month in which NFG-DAF has received the donation, provided that the aggregate donations total at least $9.51, net of processing costs (the “Minimum Disbursement Amount”). NFG-DAF shall have the right to update the Minimum Disbursement Amount from time to time in its sole discretion. If the aggregate donations for the charity do not meet the Minimum Disbursement Amount, NFG-DAF will hold such donations until the sum of the aggregate donations meets the Minimum Disbursement Amount. Notwithstanding the foregoing, NFG-DAF will disburse such donations to the charity, net of processing costs, at the end of every twelve (12) months, regardless of whether or not such amount is less than the Minimum Disbursement Amount.

Note that it is possible that donations made on partner websites may or may not be received by NFG-DAF in the same month that your donation is made, but NFG-DAF will make every attempt to receive and process donations in the earliest month possible.

Will donor information be shared?

On Network for Good websites and most partner websites, we provide you with a choice on whether or not to share your personal information with the recipient charity. See our Privacy Policy for more information.

Other disclosures

Donations to a Network for Good donor advised fund can only be used for charitable purposes and not for the benefit of the donor or donor advisor or related persons for any other purpose conferring impermissible private benefit.

All grants made from NFG-DAF are unrestricted. While a donor may opt to make a dedication, designation or other comment which will be passed along to the Charity in the donation record, the grant shall be unrestricted.
